RAY JACKSON QUEEN,

ORDER FOR REMISSION OF FINE

Now on this 29th day of September, 2008, comes on to be considered the United States' Petition for Remission of Fine. The Court, being well and sufficiently advised, finds and orders as follows with respect thereto:

1. On May 13, 2004, Defendant was sentenced to eighteen months incarceration, three years supervision, a $100.00 special assessment and a $500.00 fine.

2. The United States moves to remit Defendant's fine pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3573, which provides:

Upon petition of the Government showing that reasonable efforts to collect a fine... are not likely to be effective, the court may, in the interest of justice - -

1) remit all or part of the unpaid portion of the fine or special assessment, including interest and penalties. This statute shall apply to all fines and assessments, irrespective of the date of imposition."

3. The United States states it has been unable to locate the defendant and there is no reasonable likelihood that the fine can be collected.

4. Upon due consideration, the United States' Petition for Remission of Fine is hereby granted and Defendant's fine is remitted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
